

Water Treatment Device Certification Overview

This checklist presents an overview of required materials for device certification. Please refer to the statute and regulations for detailed information on certification requirements.

1. Application fee of $1400 (non refundable).
2. Completed application form.
3. Device and/or system label with required information. Also include head label and cartridge label(s) if applicable.
4. Performance data sheet with required information.
5. Promotional materials, which must be consistent with certified claims. These are reviewed during the application process, including the Internet site.
6. Owners or Instruction manual.
7. Extraction test report for the entire system. Lab must be California approved; testing must be according to California-approved protocols. (In lieu of test data submittal refer to Policy Memo #D-2003-01 ANSI-certified testing organization product listings in lieu of test reports)
8. Contaminant reduction test reports. Lab must be California approved; testing must be according to California-approved protocols. (In lieu of test data submittal refer to Policy Memo #D-2003-01 ANSI-certified testing organization product listings in lieu of test reports)
9. Engineering drawing for the system.
10. Wetted parts list for the system.